

Have you always wanted to preserve your memories, but can't get started? Would you like something to save and gift to family members - a legacy to live on forever? The gift of a personal memoir is one which won't ever be surpassed or forgotten. Our gift packages come in 3 sizes, and all include:

- The first step is a questionnaire you will receive - along with a personalized certificate celebrating your upcoming book, and a keepsake leather notebook for writing memories.
- Next we will schedule a series of one-on-one interviews for you with one of our book editors to gather your memories, stories, photos, and family history.
- Your book will be written for you - with you as the author, of course! - and printed in your choice of hardcover or paperback, with your photos, scanned documents and any other items you wish to include.
- Your new book will be submitted to Amazon so that others can purchase your book as well.
- Library of Congress and ISBN numbers are all included – everything you need to get your memories – published and in print to enjoy forever.
